IES RETAIL, LLC. PARTNERS WITH LOCAL BUSINESSMAN CAPTAIN AL GUSTAVSON TO BRING TEXACO WITH TECHRON TO KAILUA-KONA, HAWAII

Kailua-Kona, Hawaii (July 8, 2021) – IES Retail, LLC is proud to announce its partnership with Goose's Edge, Inc. led by local businessman Captain Al Gustavson to provide quality Texaco with Techron fuels to the West Hawaii community. This station, located at 74-5035 Queen Kaahumanu Highway, marks the 58th Texaco-branded gas station in the state of Hawaii.

Gustavson, is an experienced retailer, having operated this location for more than a decade. Gustavson's business is a family affair, with wife Suzanne Gustavson serving as Vice President, son Matt Gustavson serving as Vice President of Operations and son-in-law Nick Posey serving as Vice President of Sales & Marketing. Lelene Bay serves as station manager.

The 24-hour convenience store offers its popular Dole Whip, delicious local favorites such as Korean fried chicken, loco moco, oxtail soup, and Big Al's musubi (large 6" size musubi). Other amenities include a car wash and outdoor seating as an added convenience for customers.

Queen K Texaco, as the location will be called, is open 24 hours a day, seven days a week. The station offers its unsurpassed Techron additive in every grade of gas. It also offers ethanol free fuel, which is a highly sought-after option for boaters and diesel fuel. The Texaco mobile app is accepted at this location.

With this partnership, customers in West Hawaii have another option to redeem their Safeway Rewards points for fuel discounts for as much as 20 cents per gallon.
