FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Island Energy Services Announces Closure of Pearlridge Texaco
After 60 Years of Service to the Aiea Community

AIEA, Hawai‘i — (June 30, 2026) Island Energy Services, LLC (IES) today announced that Pearlridge Texaco, located at 98-121 Kamehameha across from Pearlridge Center, will permanently close on June 30, 2026, after serving the Aiea and Central O‘ahu community for approximately 60 years.

For decades, Pearlridge Texaco has been a familiar and trusted stop for generations of customers, providing fuel, car wash services, and friendly service to residents, commuters, and visitors in the area.

“We are deeply grateful to the Pearlridge Texaco team, our loyal customers, and the surrounding Aiea community for their support over the years,” said Jon Mauer, IES President and CEO. “Pearlridge Texaco has been more than a service station for many customers. It has been part of their daily routines and memories. We recognize the significance of this closure and wish to sincerely thank everyone who has supported the station throughout its many years of operation.”

Customers may continue to visit nearby Texaco locations for fuel and convenience needs. For a full list of Texaco stations, please visit www.texacoinhawaii.com.
